

What students are saying about school and themselves. . .

"I'm a hard worker." "I'm in a band." "I'm very well-rounded."

"I like the freedom we get." "I care about the earth."

"The thing I like about me is my personality." "I'm shy."

"I have low self-esteem." "My opinion about me is what counts."

"I like learning new things." "I like orchestra."

"I like art." "I can draw very well."

Answer the following question in a short answer response.

Why is it important to discuss the comments our peers make about school and about themselves?

- Write it in your notebook.
- In your response, be sure to restate the question.
- For example, begin by writing: "It is important to discuss the comments our peers make because. . ."